Shooting leaves three injured

By David Weller

Three people received minor injuries when several shots were fired in the MacDonalds parking lot on the corner of West Capitol Ave and Westacre Rd a little before 7:00 pm Tuesday evening.

Details about the incident are still sketchy, according to Sergeant Ed Hensley of the West Sacramento Police Department.

"Apparently someone fired several shots into the air, but also aimed lower for a couple of shots," Hensley said.

No arrests were immediately made.

One bullet hit the restaurant window, and another hit a car in the parking lot.

A small girl, estimated by Hensley to be between 3 and 5 years old, was standing in the front seat of a car in the parking lot and was injured by flying glass.

Inside the restaurant, a young man and a young woman, both estimated to be between 17 and 20 years old, were hurt.

The woman was hurt by flying glass.

The man received an injury to the chest which could have been caused by a large glass fragment or by a bullet fragment. No information was immediately available on the extent of the injuries, although all injuries were described as "minor" by officers on the scene.

Shell casings were found in the street on Westacre Rd. and in the parking lot of the Qwik Mart across the street, prompting officers to rope off the entrances to both the restaurant and the mini-market until the area was completely searched.

South River Road gasoline handling firm begins cleaning underground spill

By David Weller

Work on cleaning up the large underground gasoline spill at the Tesoro Refining Company on South River Road has been quietly under way for several months.

Without admitting responsibility, Tesoro agreed to clean up the spill early last year. By December an environmental consulting firm, Dames and Moore, hired by Tesoro began using a vacuum and vaporization process to remove hydrocarbons from the groundwater.

"They (Tesoro) have been very aggressive. They are eager to get it cleaned up," said Kim Schwab, an Associate Engineering Geologist for the state Water Quality Control Board.

Arco, which has large gasoline tanks directly across the street, has also entered into an agreement with Tesoro to share the clean-up costs.

The spill was found several years ago by the city of West Sacramento while laying a pipeline along Jefferson Blvd. The area affected extends from Tesoro's property on South River Road to about 100 feet across Jefferson Blvd. From north to south, the affected area runs from Circle Street to 17th Street.

The polluted area includes the shallow water table under several houses in the State Street area west of Jefferson Blvd.

The extent of the pollution in the deeper water table is still unknown. Dames and Moore plans to begin drilling into the deep water table at several locations in the surrounding area in order to determine how far the pollution has spread.

'They (Tesoro) have been very aggresive. They are eager to get it cleaned up.'

— Kim Schwab, state geologist

Two wells are planned along Jefferson, one on Alameda Street, one on 16th Street, and one along Union Pacific rail lines.

State inspectors have said there is no reason to believe that the spill has gotten into the river or into the deep water channel, but acknowledge that testing has not been done at the river levee.

According to Schwab, because wells along the river have not shown any indication of pollutants, the state has had no reason to investigate further. "We would be very interested if somebody has information about a particular problem along the river," she said.

The clean up procedure being employed by Dames and Moore involves ground water being pumped out of a well, creating a vacuum. Because the hydrocarbon molecules are volatile, the vacuum causes them to vaporize, at which time they are extracted from the ground.

Missing West Sacto mother sought by police

Tami Lyn Seymour, missing since Oct. 11

The West Sacramento Police Department is looking for a 37-year old West Sacramento who left her home at Ernie's Motel in West Sacramento Oct. 11 to go to a store, and never returned.

Tami Lyn Seymour, a white female 5' 6" tall and 140 pounds, was last seen wearing a floral shirt, rust-colored pants and sandals. She has brown hair and blue eyes.

Police said she is known as the devoted mother of her eight year old daughter, but has not contacted her daughter since her disappearance. Semour's identification, wallet and other personal items, as well as a government assistance check, were never picked up.

Anyone with information on Seymour's whereabouts is asked to call Det. Tom Bowler, 373-5870.

Bounty of local artists displayed at library

By Betty Fairbairn Sokolich
Exhibition Chairperson
East Yolo Friends of the Library

The West Sacramento Art Guild held a reception for the exhibit of the members art work on Sunday afternoon. The show features a great variety of subject matter and techniques. The guild is composed of local artists of diverse interests and training so produces an exhibit of painting from abstract to realistic renderings.

Lillian Kale's "Burst of Spring," a watercolor painting, is a nostalgic still-life of a treasured figurine and an arrangement of flowers in a pretty vase. Sally Kaita uses oil paint for her untitled rendition of a knarled old tree, like a Bristol pine in the high Sierra mountains reaching for the sky and hanging on to life. Hazel Froggat expertly uses the softness of pastel for "Garden," which portrays a garden with flower beds winding through the sun speckled lawns; and "Flowers," a group of geraniums done in rich deep colors.

A small abstract in bright blue pencil colors and "The Art Zone Light Rail," an ink drawing, reflect Roger Rehm's interest in interpreting the changes of our environment. Barbara Mitchel Rodrigues painted a watercolor to create the crisp contours of the onion still-life which accentuates the contrast of the yellow one against the dark red of the bermuda onion.

Artists and friends check out work of locals on display at Turner Branch Library

"Imagination," created by Katharine Cheever, has abstract flower-life shapes swirling around on the surface of the paper with glimpses of sunny yellow filtering through the composition.

In "Spring Blossoms," Carol Hawkins brings out of the dark background the holly-like flowers gently blowing in the soft spring breeze as soft leaves support the flowers. Another creation of Hawkins is a still-life of luscious pears patiently waiting on a plate to be enjoyed by the viewer.

William Leek uses a number of drafting tools to make a composition of the geometric shapes of the tools and features a "Plumb Bob" as the center of interest using graphite to enhance the mechanical nature of the awl, putty knife, crescent wrench, ruler, etc. "Tree" is drawn with charcoal and the negative spaces of the limbs keeps the composition moving around.

A wintry tree is silhouetted against the golden California hills reminiscent of the Capay Valley in Yolo County as a quiet stream flowers gently down the valley in the oil painting by Ethel Barton.

The West Sacramento Art Guild has a new member who recently arrived from the Ukraine. The talented, young Yelena Nelipovich left a scholarship to a prestigious art college before she emigrated to the USA three years ago and she now is majoring in art at American River College. Nelipovich's large watercolor of lilies, "Flow-

Simpson trial may have discouraged women seeking help

By Steve Marschke

The O.J. Simpson trial seems to have had an effect on women's reactions to domestic abuse, said an official at a local women's shelter.

"It's disgust," said Jean Jordan, executive director of Harper House in West Sacramento. "People bring it up in conversation."

What disgusts people is a widespread belief among some people that Simpson may have gotten away with the ultimate domestic violence -- murder -- if he was involved in the death of his ex-wife, Nicole Brown-Simpson, and her friend Ron Brown in Los Angeles last year. Following the most heavily publicized trial in history, the former football player and movie actor was acquitted of those crimes this year.

It was established during the trial that Simpson had a history of physically abusing his ex-spouse. Many people say that the Simpson trial raised public awareness of domestic violence, but that his acquittal dashed hopes of some women that the system can help them escape violence in the home.

Jordan said the experience at Harper House, a West Sacramento site for women escaping violence, tends to corroborate that theory.

"We saw an increase in crisis calls during the trial," she said. "and now we're seeing a decrease."

Fewer women are now calling for help than usual. Jordan said it is her "hunch" that this is because they have less faith the system can help them, after Simpson was acquitted.

There have also been anecdotes that some men have been more violent, believing that the system won't stop them.

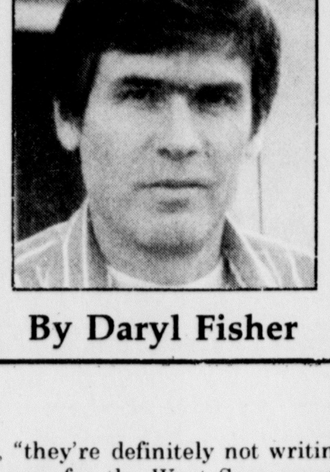
Jordan cited a Sutter County case last month in which a man was accused of slashing his mate in the face with a knife. The victim says he then stated that "if O.J. can get away with it, so can I."

Harper House, a home in West Sacramento whose address is confidential in order to protect the safety of those seeking refuge, is run by the nonprofit Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence Center of Yolo County, which is funded by federal, state and local grants.

In addition to helping women in danger of domestic violence, the Center also offers rape crisis intervention and programs for children.

Anyone can write a romance novel - or can they?

My Back Pages



By Daryl Fisher

A week ago last Saturday I was sitting on the couch with my wife watching what turned out to be the final game of the World Series when she suddenly looked up from the newspaper she was reading and said, "Hey, listen to this."

I nodded my head that I was listening, although I wasn't, and while she quoted something from the Scene section, I silently asked myself why it is that I always manage to get so attached to the team that is losing the World Series?

"Did you hear what I just said?" asked my wife, poking me with her elbow.

"Of course I heard you," I lied.

"No you didn't," she said. "Now turn down that ball game for two minutes and listen to this."

"But it's the sixth game of the World Series," I reminded her.

"Big deal," she said without the least bit of sympathy.

"Okay," I said, reluctantly pushing the mute button on the T.V. clicker, "but this better be good."

"It says here that a lot of writers are getting rich these days," she said, pointing to the article she was reading. "Do you want to know how they're doing it?"

"Well," I said, "they're definitely not writing newspaper columns for the West Sacramento News-Ledger, I can tell you that."

"They're writing romance novels," she informed me, "and people are reading them more than any other kind of book."

"That figures."

"And it says that almost anyone can write a romance novel."

"Really?"

"I guess they all have pretty much the same plot," she explained. "You know, girl meets boy, girl gets boy, girl and boy live happily ever after. You could write something like that, couldn't you?"

"You want me to write a romance novel?" I asked her with surprise.

"I want you to be rich," she explained with a little more specificity.

"But I've never even read a romance novel."

"One of my friends down at work keeps dozens on them in her desk," she said. "Why don't I bring a few of them home with me on Monday for you to look at?"

"Fine," I said, eager to get back to my ball game and sure that she would forget about the whole thing before the weekend was over.

But two days later, as I sat at my computer thumbing through the chapters of some of the used romance novels my wife had procured for me, I began to understand why the darn things are so popular. They are absolutely full of heart pounding, no holds barred sex! In fact, almost every single page of every single book has a paragraph or two which reads something like this: 'Wilma moaned as the flickering flames inside her turned into a raging inferno. Sinking to her knees she flung her eager arms around Fred's burly neck, toppling them both to the cold, hard floor. His response was immediate. He clasped her in such a close embrace that she could feel every taut muscle in his pulsating body. Within moments, his masculine possession filled her with joy. He looked for new ways to stoke her passion, bringing her mounting ecstasy, then satisfying her totally. The waves of sensation that accompanied their crest vibrated through both their bodies, leaving them totally out of breath and sweating like pigs." (That last part about the pigs I added.)

"Mary," I yelled out to my wife, "get in here!"

"What is it?" she asked with alarm as she hurried to my side.

"I'm sorry, but I don't think I can write a romance novel."

"Why not?"

"Because they're all about stroking peoples' inner thighs and guys with warm mouths and women with white satin skin."

"Don't you even want to try?" she asked, obviously not quite ready to let all those millions of dollars in book royalties slip through her fingers.

"Okay, okay, I'll try," I said bravely, always willing to go that extra mile for my wife, "but I think I'm going to need you to bring me a cold glass of water every now and then."

"Why?"

"To throw in my face," I said, already a little hot and flushed from all my research.

Sewer Fund Update

As you are well aware, the cost of living has been going up. Likewise, has the cost of providing sewage treatment for the community. Like you, the City has had to adjust to increasing costs beyond its control. In spite of efforts to contain the increasing costs of chemicals, energy, and those caused by increasing state and federal environmental regulations and standards, the cost of sewage treatment has exceeded the ability to adequately fund it within the current rate structure.

Our past attempts to contain costs have not been without a price. We continued using outdated equipment, and were understaffed for years beyond what was prudent. However, recent fines by the Regional Water Quality Control Board point to the fact that saving pennies can cost dollars. Trying to make do with outdated equipment and minimal staffing made it impossible to consistently comply with new, tough standards. We paid the fines, not with Sewer Fund monies, but with Redevelopment funds, and corrected the situation. The City Council directed us to "fix the problem" and authorized the equipment expenditures to do so. Some of these expenses, too, were borne by the Redevelopment Fund.

But the change of equipment, process and staffing that resulted, have increased the cost of operations. Unfortunately, state law prohibits use of Redevelopment funds for ongoing operational needs. Much effort, however, has gone into equitably charging dischargers for their proportionate share of the treatment process. Our industrial users, for instance, pay for the extra cost of our Industrial Pretreatment Program, which ensures that their discharge does not upset the treatment process.

Overall treatment costs have risen due to significant increases in staffing, testing requirements, landfill cost and process related expenses, such as energy and chemicals. Our staffing has doubled from five to ten in order to implement a second shift necessary to operate the facility in compliance with the requirements of our discharge permit. Chemical costs have increased 78% since 1991, and sludge disposal costs have tripled in the last three years. Increased monitoring and testing requirements have increased the laboratory workload by fifty percent. As a result, the total annual operating costs have risen over $800,000.

In a nutshell, the current rate structure is insufficient to finance these increased operating costs, and our cash reserves are insufficient to subsidize a smaller than needed rate increase.

The necessary additional funding of $801,484 represents a 26% increase, for a total funding level of $3,913,584. Representative rate increases will be recommended as follows:

PROPOSED RATE INCREASE
(Monthly Charge)

CURRENT	PROPOSED
Residential
$12.79	$18.24
Office/Commercial (example 12 c.f.)
$14.04	$27.36
Industrial (example 47 c.f.)
$54.99	$107.16

A public presentation of the proposed rate increase is tentatively scheduled to be held December 6, 1995, at 7:00 p.m., in the City Council Chambers at 2101 Stone Boulevard.

This column, written by City of West Sacramento staff, covers a variety of topics concerning the City of West Sacramento's government and services. If you have a concern that you would like to see addressed in a future article, please send your questions to:

Raiders rebound from disappointment, pick up big win over Lindhurst High

By Khaled Dastagirzada
River City High School Football Team

"That was the worst performance of River City football that I have ever seen," said Coach Massey, referring to last week's loss to Marysville. "I won't accept anything less than perfect tonight." Following Massey's words, Coach Carter said, "This may be the last home game you seniors will ever play." Massey was satiated by the Raiders' performance against the Lindhurst Blazers. The final score was 49 to 7, with the Raiders coming out on top.

In the first quarter, two penalties dragged the Raiders 40 yards back. The Raiders didn't let that stop them, when Josh Castro carried the ball for 18 yards and then ran the ball in from 29 yards out. That was one of four touchdowns on the night for Castro.

The Raiders played prominently on defense. Dave Jernigan came up with a sack which forced the Blazers to punt. Will Welcher, who played "deadly defense" throughout the night, was able to block the punt which was then recovered by Jimmy Timas for River City. That set up a four-yard touchdown run by Castro. The Raiders forced Lindhurst to punt again, and Barry Golden returned it all the way to the Blazers' one-yard line. Castro ran it in from six yards out, after a five-yard holding penalty. That score set the stage for the Raiders, who had a 21-0 lead. The Raiders were then hoping to hold the Blazers on a shut-out, but that was just ruined by #50 of the Blazers, when he returned the following kick-off for a touchdown. The first quarter came to a close after Welcher sacked the Blazers' quarterback.

The Blazers were on offense again, and that meant one more sack for Welcher. Castro had his fourth and final touchdown of the game when he scored on a run from five yards out. Gary Herren, trying to show true passing ability, completed a pass for 33 yards to Castro. Then he connected a pass to Timas for 37 yards, and the drive was topped off with whipped cream on a 13-yard touchdown pass to Brian Kinney. The score at the end of the first half was 35-7, the Raiders with the lead.

The Raiders came out of the locker room with the desire to further increase the lead. The Raiders kicked off and started on offense first. That was made possible by the Raiders' kick off team, when they forced the Blazers to fumble and Angel Cardenas for River City recovered. Castro carried the ball for ten yards, which led to an 11-yard touchdown run by Randy Byard.

The Raiders forced Lindhurst to fumble again. Castro was given the toss on the right side, and he picked up ten yards. That set up a field goal for the Raiders, but the kick was blocked by Lindhurst. The third quarter ended with the score at 42-7 in favor of the Raiders.

The starting offense had just been replaced by the second and third string offense. L.J. Hughes was given ball and was able to score a two-yard touchdown run, which was the final score of the game. Every player on the Raiders' sideline was able to play in the game. It seemed as if the Raiders wanted to pull out people from the crowd to come down and play.

Peter Santizo ate his Wheaties before the game, splitting the uprights seven of eight times (all seven extra points). The Raider defense held Lindhurst to a total of 48 yards (-14 yards passing), and no offensive points.

"I'm very proud of the way you played tonight. The intensity level off this team is very high now. If you guys go into Golden Sierra with that intensity level, they'll never know what hit them," said Coach Massey. The Raiders will face off against a favored Golden Sierra team on Thursday in what is known as their final regular season game. The Raiders must win this game in order to ensure a playoff spot. If they lose, they are still, mathematically, alive.

Just when the 49ers thought their bad luck was over, it got worse!

The Carolina Panthers came into 3Com Park as 15-point underdogs and left with a 13-7 victory over the defending Super Bowl champs. The 49ers played worse than last week's upset at the hands of the Saints.

The Niners had 404 total yards compared to the Panthers' 204 yards, but the difference was five turnovers by the 49ers that led to Carolina's 13 points. The 49ers' new kicker, Tony Zendajas, kicked the ground before he struck the ball and his 32-yard chip shot sailed about ten yards! Doug Brien, the kicker the 49ers cut two weeks ago, won the game for the Saints, kicking four field goals in their 19-10 win over the Rams.

If the 49ers didn't have bad luck they wouldn't have any luck at all! Next week, the 49ers travel to Dallas for what was supposed to be the big showdown.

Steve Young should play next week, but if the 49ers are going to upset the Cowboys, they better be prepared for the Cowboys, who are looking for the big payback!

I know this sounds crazy, but if Steve Young plays, look for the 49ers to dig deep as a team and upset the Boys.

49ers 24, Dallas 23.

The Raiders continue to win, beating the Bengals 20-17 in Cincinatti last Sunday. The Raiders (7-2) still trail the Chiefs (8-1) in the divisional race for the home field advantage in the playoffs. The Raiders host the Dallas Cowboys in two weeks!

The Sacramento Kings won their first two games of the season beating the Timberwolves on opening night and then whipping the L.A. Clippers 99-82 on Sunday. The Kings travel to the East Coast to play four games before returning to the Arco Arena to play the Lakers on Nov. 14.

See ya next week!!

Fine game, but frosh fall short

River City High School's Freshman Football Team outplayed Lincoln but came out on the losing end. River City racked up 271 yards rushing and 64 yards passing. Lincoln only had 79 yards rushing and 107 yards passing. R.C. had a total of 335 yards, compared to Lincoln's 186 yards. It is so hard to lose a game when you out-play the other team that much.

Rushing for the Raiders was led by Dominique Alpers, with 138 yards; Vincent Baldizan, 40 yards; Adam Wicklife, 38 yards; Alfredo Rodriguez, 22 yards; Felix Timas, 9 yards; Malcom Floyd, 9 yards; Gilbert Savala, 10 yards; William Snow, 4 yards; and Juan Rubio, 1 yard.

Leading the defense was Timas, with 4 tackles, 1 assist, 1 pass interception; Alpers, 3 tackles, 4 assists; Andrew Zolinkov, 3 tackles, 4 assists; Baldizan, 2 tackles, 3 assists; Sean O'Neil, 1 tackle, 2 assists, 1 quarterback sack; and Snow,

News-Ledger Editorial

Change in weather but no change in shelter policy

There was a day last week when the night met the definition of "cold" for the first time this season, and weather predictors promise another wet, wet winter.

Whether they prove right, we do not yet know. But West Sacramentans (except, perhaps, for the avid skiers) no doubt hope for exactly the same thing their Central Valley neighbors do every fall: a few weeks of time when it is not too hot and dusty, but not too cold to enjoy the outdoors.

A few more evenings of outdoor strolls. Maybe a meal or cup of coffee enjoyed outside.

It can't, of course, feel like the holiday season until the weather actually does take that final turn around the corner into frost and gray skies. But Thanksgiving and Christmas are deceptively close, despite the lack of signs.

This means various things.

One of those things it means is that the annual Christmas Basket Project is firing up. This project is supported by nearly every local church and community organization in West Sacramento, in perhaps the single most impressive show of unity the city ever puts together.

Over a thousand people are fed a holiday meal by these volunteers and those who support them.

How to get involved? Contact your local church or service organization.

Another thing the holiday season means is even more misery in the lives of the homeless; whether they be mentally ill, substance abusers, or just plain down on their luck.

Will we soon be playing "ping pong" across the river again, rousting them from their riverbank campsites and sending them out of town until Sacramento rousts them and sends them back?

When will we look at a regional plan for shelters, mandating that each community set up some sort of minimal-but-safe roof over their heads? A simple cold-weather shelter, so that when someone is ousted, they truly have somewhere to go?

Until we do, expect to step over a sleeping body or two when visiting the post office or other public building late at night.

Quote identified

Re: T.J. Smoot, column from August 18, 1995 column:

I would like to comment on the poem that he has taped to his wall by an "unknown" author.

This quotation is, in fact, quite well-known; it is from Julius Caesar by William Shakespeare. In fact, it is spoken by Brutus who, after assassinating Caesar, is preparing to do battle with Caesar's forces at the battle of Philippi.

Agnostic responds:

In reference to Mr. Daryl Fisher's column of November 1, I would wish that you had stuck to your resolve to never discuss religion in your column. I take offense at your statement that "one has to be pretty stupid to be an atheist and pretty wishy-washy to be a fence-sitting agnostic."

It strikes me as bigotism for a theist or an atheist to judge others when, in both instances, he has no demonstrable proof, only blind Faith or specious "Logic."

My agnosticism is a result of much consideration and effort to arrive at some conclusion to no avail. It is every bit as important and central to my existence as other people's beliefs are to them, and I'll thank you not to so lightly criticize me for it.

Port allegations

Last week John A. Ramirez wrote a letter to the editor alleging inappropriate conduct by port officials. These are the false accusations of a man who lost his membership as a longshoreman for failing to abide by their rules. He has presented his irrational allegations to the National Labor Relations Board which ruled that the Union acted lawfully in their treatment of Mr. Ramirez. He persisted with suits in various courts, and in each instance his cases was dismissed because they lacked merit.

The port researched his complaints in 1994, and it was determined the port had no standing or jurisdiction in the matter. Mr. Ramirez refuses to accept responsibility for his own actions when he abandoned his longshore job. You and your good readers should not be fooled by his irresponsible conduct and wild allegations.

Remember Measure B

There is a familiar note in the News-Ledger's article about the resignation of a founding member of EDAC (Economic Development Commission) (Founding member being appointed by the WUSD as their representative?) The vision as reported, is very much like Measure B's vision: to quote "My vision of Southport would be a community of housing and high end commercial that would take advantage of our water resources."

It is never too late to admit a mistake and forge ahead. A huge amount of money was put forth by the developers, especially those who believed that Southport industrial was the way to go; those of us who worked for Measure B, believing that a short time taken to sort out the long-term advantages of the housing and high end commercial -- not the short-term profit of industrial -- would be the best way to go, welcome the conversion and the rescue of the acres involved.

I hope that the next stages in planning will be in the spirit of Measure B, not the foregone conclusions of a few.

Street services

It has been brought to my attention that the city council will be considering the elimination of the city public streets department (and the positions of those working in that department) in an effort to "trim the budget" of the city, at the next council meeting, November 8.

Since this matter will probably be considered a "personnel issue" and discussion will not be open to the public, I am utilizing this method of communication to make the concerns of myself and my neighbors known to other citizens of this city.

The street department provides necessary services to all citizens by keeping our sidewalks and roads in good repair, maintaining the storm drains, placing signs appraising the public of local laws, placing barricades, etc. when hazardous road conditions exist, cleaning up fallen trees, removing debris, placing holiday decorations along West Capitol Avenue, etc. These and many other services performed by this department affect the health, welfare and safety of each and every citizen to provide the services who will be performing the street maintenance? (Thus preventing falls on cracked sidewalks, or motor vehicle accidents due to unrepaired roads.) Who will assure that our streets, driveways, homes are not flooded during heavy winter rains? (The storm drains must be cleared periodically.) Who will clean up the debris of fallen trees, the aftermath of roadway accidents, the accumulated garbage and debris in the curbs and gutters of the "Premier City"?

The street department is vital to our health. It is essential to our welfare and to our safety, and the safety of our children and older population. The entire city population depends upon this department. This issue should be brought before the citizens to decide if they are willing to give up these services.

I urge each and every one of the citizens of the city to contact as many city councilpersons as you can, as well as the city manager, Joseph Goeden, and ask if they, personally, are willing to live in a city which does not care for their streets and sidewalks, or one which is likely to flood badly if we have a nasty winter, or one with curbs and gutters filled with debris. Before casually eliminating an entire service department, at least consider the services they perform and determine who will provide those services...and discuss it with those who receive the services...the taxpayers, and the citizens of the city.

JOYCE MILLER
West Sacramento

Editor's note: An agenda item on changes to the city's street division, including possibly "reducing personnel in the street division," is indeed scheduled for the council's November 8 meeting. It will be discussed in open, public session as required by state law, because it involves policy and not confidential personnel matters.

In remembrance

Every time we see the yellow tow trucks with Jack's Automotive around Sacramento and Yolo County, it will remind us of our best friends, traveling and dinner partners. And what a void has been left in our hearts and our lives.

Jack L. Matney was born in Fairfield on August 4, 1936. The family moved to Lodi where he grew up and was a 1954 graduate of Lodi High School. He married his childhood sweetheart, Cora Mae Albers, on June 23, 1956, in Lodi. Jack was a member of the Navy Reserve and then served in the Army in Okinawa from 1957 to 1959.

Moving to Sacramento in 1959, he opened up a service station with $200.00 and a lease with Atlantic Richfield at Alhambra Blvd. and Capitol Ave. With the family growing to three children, Jack would work long and hard hours, sometimes not going home, and only catching a cat nap on a cot in the lube room, waiting for a customer to come in, and a loud bell in the station would wake him if he got time to nap.

Cora would take the children and their dinner down to him. She said that she "had to introduce the kids to their father now and then."

Moving the business to West Capitol Ave., the hard work paid off as the children grew, and so did the business. Cora and the children, Kari, Mark and Bret, worked side by side with Jack, soon purchasing the property on Soule Street and in Elk Grove they have the largest AAA towing and emergency road service in Northern California, with over 38 trucks.

Recently purchasing the property and business of Mather Mini Truck, also on Soule Street.

the family spent a lot of time building a large cattle ranch near Ely, Nevada, with 200 cows and numerous horses, which was sold a while ago, so Jack and Cora could finally travel in their beautiful 4106 Greyhound Bus that we had just remodeled. Earlier this year, they traveled over 15 states.

Jack was a 32 Mason in the Tehama Lodge No. 3 in Sacramento, the Western Bus Nuts, Golden Gate Bus Club, Family Motor Coach Association. He passed away at 59 years old on October 23 in Sutter General Hospital after suffering a massive stroke on October 20.

He leaves his wife of 39 years, Cora, his daughter Kari Woodward; sons, Mark and Bret; and parents, Norman and Ruth Matney, all of Sacramento. Also, a sister, Norma Sanders of Oak Harbor, Washington; five grandchildren; and many, many loving friends.

Services were held October 26 at W.F. Gormley and Sons and he was laid to rest at East Lawn on Folsom Blvd.

Memorials may be sent to the Heart Association, 2007 O Street, Sacramento, 95814, in his memory.

Jack will be sadly missed, but he will never be forgotten!

Flood concerns

An open letter from the Sacramento Area Flood Control Agency:

Today, Sacramento area residents face the most serious risk of flooding in the nation -- with over 350,000 residents, 117 schools, 40 roads and highways and $16 billion in property at stake.

But we are closer than ever to dramatically reducing that risk.

On November 9, the Sacramento Area Flood Control Agency (SAFCA) is scheduled to select one of three flood control options, each of which would significantly reduce the risk of flooding.

SAFCA was scheduled to make that choice earlier this month, but a request for more time from a local member of Congress has given us the opportunity to reach a greater level of consensus -- both on the SAFCA board and with our Congressional delegation.

We already know that any of the three plans will face a tough fight in Congress. That's why it's critical that our local and federal officials have sufficient time to reach an agreement before taking the fight to Washington, D.C.

We cannot overstate the importance of this decision to Sacramento's future. Because negotiations with Congress are at a critical point, the board has

Police log

Nov. 4, 12:45 a.m.
A 20-year old man and his 16-year old brother entered a gas station/market on Jefferson Blvd., grabbed several packages of cigarettes, and left without paying or speaking to the clerk. The man was identified by the clerk, and police found him at a residence. He was booked.

Nov. 5, 12:10 a.m.
About 15 teen suspects were reported in the process of stealing beer from a Harbor Blvd. convenience market.

Nov. 5, 8:30 a.m.
A Kimberly Ct. resident reported several windows had been broken with large rocks, causing about $3,000 worth of damage.

Nov. 5, 9:25 a.m.
A man was reported trying to break into a boarded up house. He was "staggering around" near a side window, having opened it, and was trying to hop into the house through the window. When police arrived, he was still unsuccessful at it, and was taken to detox.

Nov. 5, 3:14 p.m.
Two officers headed northbound on Harbor saw a suspect vehicle turning onto Harbor at high speed, swerving out of control. They stopped the vehicle. The 21-year old driver from Rio Linda had no driver's license, and had a pair of brass knuckles in a pant pocket. He was arrested. A search of the vehicle turned up a hypodermic needle under a floor mat.

Nov. 5, 5:20 p.m.
Police were sent to Merkley Ave., and found a 50-year old Merkley Ave. man with a bleeding nose and upper lip. His 50-year old wife had pushed him out the driver's seat of their van during an argument, and he landed on his face. The woman was arrested.

Nov. 5, 9:10 p.m.
Dispatchers sent police to a West Capitol Ave. motel. They found a man with his nose "extremely crooked," bleeding and obviously broken, who said he had been arguing with a 30-year old suspect. The suspect struck the man about a dozen times, until he fell to the floor, and then kicked him 20 or 30 time in the face with steel toed boots. Police located the suspect and read him his rights. He then admitted the attack, and was booked.

unanimously supported the request for a short extension.

The extension will also allow SAFCA Board members additional time to review public comments in order to provide our community with the best flood control option.

The extension will not affect the timeline for any of the projects, and a few weeks of extra effort is needed to ensure Sacramento gets the flood protection that is so desperately needed.

In a recent editorial, the Sacramento Bee said, "Getting a flood-safety plan passed in Washington, D.C. won't be easy. but the only way to get there is take the first step firmly and do it together."

That's what we're working for now. And with your support, we'll take that first step.

Medicare trouble

Thoughtful citizens and organizations from around the nation have differing views on what should be done with our Medicare system, destined to bankruptcy in a few years if nothing is changed. Most of us understand that the important medical needs of the elderly must be balanced with fairness and with consideration of the taxpayers' ability to pay.

Away and apart from this rational discussion in Yolo County and the nation, we hear a voice continuously using and distorting this sensitive issue of health care for the elderly for his own re-election efforts. Who would so politicize and emotionalize such an important issue as to undermine reasonable debate? It is, of course, none other than that life-lone government employee, our own Vic Fazio.

Fazio says the Republican plan in Congress will severely cut the Medicare program. Nothing is further from the truth (which is often where you will find our Vic). The Congressional proposal calls for a six percent increase every year for Medicare. That's more than the inflation rate has been and more than most people will get in annual salary increases.

But Vic Fazio, with a straight face, continues to tell us that this $86 billion increase of over 50 percent in Medicare expenditures for the life of this seven-year bill is a "cut" in Medicare.

Why does Vic lie to us on this and other important issues? Simply, it is to help himself. Fazio's approach is to so fictionalize discussion in order to get you to vote against any Republican running against him. Thanks for thinking of yourself first again, Vic, and the elderly and the rest of us as an afterthought.

Fat?
Sick and Tired?

So was I. Overweight, suffering from chronic fatigue, experiencing hair loss, anxiety resulting in heart palpitations, and poor diet attached to a high stress work environment, blah, blah, blah. . . (Sound familiar?)

Well, today I have lost over 50 lbs., I weigh what I did as a high school junior nearly 18 years ago, the hair loss has stopped, the heart problems have ceased, my diet has greatly improved, and I no longer experience the high stress in virtually the same line of business.

This may not work for everyone, but if you want to know how to get off the track to a short life-span and one that may add years to a more productive and healthier life, simply call (800) 836-9180. I will send you a free tape, and personally return your call.

I wouldn't be offering this product to you if I hadn't used it for over 1 1/2 years and believed in it myself.

ers of Spring," is beautifully painted with rich, deep colors and strong light and dark values which create a feeling of being able to touch the flowers and feel their beauty as well as to see it.

"The Picasso's Cafe" by Betty Fairbairn Sokolich is a watercolor of a local restaurant in Sacramento and captures the noon time when the lunch day patrons begin to arrive.

The startling portrait of "Julie" by Joan Leed is painted in a loose, expressionistic way that adds a vitality to the portrait. Julia's penetrating eyes coquettishly follow you around the room.

Pearl Silva's still-life has a unique primitive appeal. The garish colors jar the viewer into really looking at the art work.

The Filoili Mansion, Woodside, California, is the inspiration for Helen Sieber's "Shadows." Sieber's intense interest in minute detail results in a total composition with a feeling of unity and a serene feeling. The door surrounded by the vines and flowers climbing around it invite you to investigate what is behind the closed door.

The exhibit is on display through the month of November and can be viewed during the regular library hours. The exhibit is sponsored by the East Yolo Friends of the Library.

Church project aims to bring Christmas gifts to kids of inmates

For their fourth year, First Baptist Church is participating in the "Angel Tree" ministry of Charles Colson's international organization -- Prison Fellowship. Through "Angel Tree," Christmas gifts are provided to West Sacramento children whose lives are torn by the reality of a parent in prison (each gift is given on behalf of the absent parent). The children's "at-home" parent or guardian is contacted to find out what they might need or want for Christmas, and one clothing wish and one toy wish are granted per child (usually the families are very needed and the requests very basic). Each wish is then written on a paper angel and put on a Christmas tree -- hence the name "Angel Tree."

Individuals, groups or businesses are then asked to purchase a child's gift wish (it is requested that sponsors keep the value of the gifts about $20, in order that their value be consistent), and once the gifts are collected they are presented to the children on behalf of the parent in prison. This year the gifts will be distributed at a "Happy Birthday Jesus" celebration, Friday, December 8, where the families will gather together for dinner and an evening celebrating Christmas -- with stories, songs, and laughter. After the party, each inmate is sent a Christmas greeting that includes details of the gift given (from them) and a picture of their family taken at the party.

This year, requests for over 70 children have been received by the church, with the expectation of doubling that number as applications are forwarded from the Prison Fellowship office. The church is asking that individuals, businesses, churches, or any other interested group, consider either donating money for a gift (we will shop for you) or sponsoring specific gift wishes. The smile on a child's face, the building of bridges in broken family relationships, and a bright spot in what probably would have been a lonely and empty Christmas season will make it worth every moment and every dollar.

If you are interested in helping make Christmas a reality for these children in our community, please call Diane Clements at the church at 371-4061, or at home at 372-2535. The church thanks you for your help -- they really cannot accomplish this without you!

Yolo County History Museum plans art, fun & festivities at annual Christmas Bazaar this weekend

From the Yolo County Historical Museum

Ten decorated trees and floral arrangements will lend a festive touch to the Yolo County Historical Museum's Christmas Bazaar that will be held on November 11 and 12 in the Gibson Mansion at 512 Gibson Road in Woodland.

A wide variety of homemade jellies, james, pickles, candles, cookies and holiday breads will be on sale, as will be handcrafted gifts, floral arrangements, wreaths, swags, ristras, and small decorated trees.

The Gibson Garden Guild will offer a selection of herbs, living Christmas trees, native plants, succulents, bulbs, garden seeds, and fresh persimmons and pomegranates.

Yolo County interior decorators, floral designers, and talented craftspersons have selected Elegant Traditions as the theme for the trees and arrangements that will be place din each room of the historic mansion that dates back to 1857.

Helen Davis of Woodland will place a tree in the entry hall. The tree in the west parlor will be arranged by Joan Lucchesi and Kathy Richter of Woodland. Barbara Lingberg of Woodland will provide a tree, with utensils from the 1920's, for the kitchen. Anita Long of Davis, owner of The House Dresser, will decorate the Eastlake bedroom. Lavonna Gilardi, an interior decorator from Woodland, will outfit the Victorian bedroom.

The Art Nouveau bedroom is to be decorated by Suzy Stille of Woodland. Diane Machado of Woodland will place a tree full of toys in the childrens bedroom. Stille will also decorate the upstairs bathroom.

The East Parlor fireplace will be decorated by Tina Crutcher of Woodland. Joan Lucchesi will fashion the piano arrangement.

Also donating time and talent to provide the festive arrangements has been Bobbie Greenwood of Winters.

A wooden gingerbread house created by Irma and Eldee Wirth of Woodland and a quilted wall-hanging quilt, assembled and quilted by award-wining quilter of Alice Delwhiche of Davis will be on display and will be included in a raffle drawing to be held on December 14.

The Sacramento river registered 3ft. 8in. U. S. guage at the Southern Pacific bridge yesterday.

Last Sunday Henry Leinberger Sr. made a short trip to Woodland to visit old friends. Henry is past his 91st year and is still hale and hearty. Many years ago before Woodland was on the map Henry Leinberger used to drive cattle over the plains extending from the foothills west of Capay to the Sacramento river. Last Sunday he was delighted to visit at Beamer park the prize show place of Woodland. While in Woodland last Sunday he was taken around by several old friends among them being his son-in-law Tom Limnel and County Tax Collector Bob Woods. Although past his 91st year he doesn't hesitate to go around alone and is quite capable of taking care of himself even on the busy thoroughfares of Woodland.

Yesterday afternoon a coyote made his apearance in the brush north of Rocky Point near the John Grote place. Several local boys went after him but he managed to make his escape. Clyde Crenshaw, Tug Wilson and Norman Philips were hot on his trail but he managed to escape. Poultry owners should be on the lookout while the animal is around.

Last Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harms, Mrs. Charles Harms, Mrs. Paul Dupsyke and Mrs. Carrie Harms went to Wodland for a short visit. As a matter of fact Mrs. Harms went to pay her taxes at the county seat and made the occasion an opportunity to entertain her boys and girls.

FORECLOSURE SUIT UNDER $20,000 NOTE IS FILED

Woodland, Nov. 4.—William H. Gould, County Horticultural Commissioner of Yolo County, and his wife, Mary Catherine Gould, have begun foreclosure proceedings in the Superior Court of this county against Mr. and Mrs. Darold D. DeCoe of Sacramento city to collect on a $20,000 promissory note executed July 22, 1919. A 40-acre ranch near Woodland secures the note. DeCoe is a lawyer and was formerly in the offices of Charles W. Thomas, Jr., having charge of the latter's business while he was Adjutant General of the State of California. Armfield & Eddy are attorneys for Gould and wife.

LAST YOLO ALMONDS ARE HARVESTED

Woodland, Nov. 4.—The last of the Yolo County almond crop was placed in storage at Esparto yesterday, according to the Capay Almond Growers' Association. The yield this year, even though heavily hit by frosts, amounted to 15 cars or 300 tons. The outlook for a good market is said to be the best in years.

THREE DIPHTHERIA CASES

Woodalnd, Nov. 4.—There are but three cases of diphtheria in Yolo County and they are centered in one family in the Esparto district, according to a canvas of the doctors of the county here today. The health of the county is particularly good, although every precaution is being taken to prevent the spread of a diphtheria epidemic such as prevails in other parts of the valley.

One Kansas bandit held up seven mail clerks the other night and robbed the mail car.

WINE GRAPES BRING BIG PRICES IN THE EASTERN STATES

Last shipments of late grapes from the Concord district were made during the week when 15 cars of Cornichons were sent out over the San Francisco and Sacramento railroad, billed for points east of Chicago and New York. Wine grape shipments totaling more than 200 carloads were shipped east from Concord, Meinert, Alamo and Danville, and wine grape growers announce that all records for prices and quality of the grapes were broken. Average sales of the wine grapes netted the groewrs $150 per ton.

Several large vineyards had been uprooted following the announcement that the prohibition law would result in a slackening of the demand for wine grapes and much disappointment was expressed by the growers who acted on the impulse and destroyed their vineyards. With the high price promising to prevail again next season vine men were making active preparation for the most careful cultivation of their stock in order to increase the yield and improve the quality of the fruit.

BRYTE IMPROVEMENT CLUB WILL ENTERTAIN SATURDAY NIGHT

The first dance of this winter season will be given by the Bryte Improvement Club at the Public school building next Saturday evening.

This will be the first of a series of dances that the Improvement Club will give during the winter season for the purpose of raising funds to pay for a lot on which a Town Hall is to be built subsequently.

There are few communities that are united wholeheartedly as that of Bryte. Every resident of the district joins in when anything is to be done for the improvement of the district and although there are only a few who can afford to contribute lavishly everybody does his share with the result that remarkable things that have been accomplished in the district.

The dances given by the Bryte Improvement Club are mostly of the country type wherein everybody meets his friends and there are no petty jealousies or no attempts at style. Everybody is welcome as long as they behave themselves and the glad hand of good fellowship reaches out from every corner.

The series of dances to be given this year will wind up with a grand masquerade on New Year's night when it is estimated the necessary amount will be raised to pay for the lot for the Town Hall.

The committee of the Club having there dances under its charge consists of B. Anater R. Lee, E. C. White, C. Noyes, F. Murray, H. L. Freeze, A. Treloar and H. C. Bell.

At next Saturday nights dance there will be refreshments for the ladies and cigars for the men.

WILKES PLAYERS WILL PRESENT "REBECCA OF SUNNYBROOK FARM"

The Wilkes Players are delighting large audiences this week at the Seventh Street playhouse in the delightfully different comedy "The Ruined Lady," for the coming week an elaborate production of "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" will be the offering. The play is in five acts of strong dramatic heart interest and comedy of the rural New England type.

Perhaps the most lovable girl neroine of the last two decades is the little New England miss, Rebecca. The drama sets forth the adventures of Rebecca from the time of her arrival at the home of her aunts, Miranda and Jane Sawyer, to the dawn of womanhood and the birth of love in her heart. Her pranks, her charm, her adventures, her mishaps, the comedies of New England life.

Manager Farvin will present this play with a wealth of scenery and realistic effects. Dora Clemant, Brady Kline, Evelyn Hambly, Sydney Riggs and all the favorites will be seen in the cast.

OIL DRILLING HELD UP BY LOSS OF BIT

Woodland, Nov. 7.—Drilling on one of the old projects in the Western Yolo field has been halted by an unusual accident.

After getting down 1,200 feet, the crew lost a bit. Then a fishing expedition started. The work is now stopped to fish out the fishing apparatus.

RICE HARVESTING WILL BE COMPLETE THIS WEEK

Continuation of favorable weather conditions, which have prevailed in the last few weeks, will see at least 70 per cent of the 1921 rice crop in the warehouses. This is according to growers, who are now engaged earnestly in harvesting the crop.

The crop is reported spotted, and it is predicted by those in close touch with the situation, that it is doubtful if it will run 3,000,000 bags.

The early prediction was for a 4,000,000 bag crop, but threshing observations have disproved this. It is said that in many localities the rice has not headed as expected, and is running lighter per acre than predicted.

Unfavorable early growing conditions, and careless planting in which the use of poor seed was used, have combined, it is said, to materially reduce the yield this season.

There is said to be virtually no market at this time, and outside of one or two early sales at three cents or thereabouts, offers now are ranging materially below that figure. Rice growers declare the market has not yet been established, and no prediction as to a market is ventured now.

YOLO DOG OWNERS HAVE ORGANIZED CLUB

Woodland, Nov. 8.—If you have a hound dog that would like to chase the festive rabbit, the Superior California Coursing Club is anxious to have you become a member that the coming season may be full of sport for those who derive pleasure out of this particular game. A number of the local greyhound owners have gotten together and organized a club with the following membership: Kier Snavely, Dobie Strong, Lawrence Mezger, Ernest Mezger, "Brick" McNeill, John Walker, James Longrus, Phillip Hollingsworth, and H. C. Hinckley. Last year some good matches were held in and about Yolo county. This year it is planned to make the sport worth while to those who enjoy it. Snavely is head of the local club and will take in memberships.

Human life is so cheap now that nobody hesitates to kill.

The sob-sisters and the long haired men will make a pet of you if you can only kill some poor devil.

BABY'S DEATH CAME AFTER MANY MONTHS' SICKNESS

Last Sunday the five mnoths old baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Johnson whose home is on Fourth St. near Mary St. passed away after a prolonged sickness.

The child had been delicate since his birth with no particular ailment except that it lacked vitality.

Although seven more children of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson survive it the parents feel his loss greatly. The baby's name was Rodney Johnson.

Last Tuesday the child was buried in the family plot at Grass Valley where the remains were shipped by the undertaking firms of Miller and Shelton of Sacramento.

A Sacramento jewder said the other day that Christmas shopping was already quite lively.

Why shouldn't it be? The United States mails are fruitful sources of revenue for the purchase of diamonds and other costly gifts.

Reports are being published that there is a possibility Mrs. Annette Adams may be named federal judge for the Northern District of California.

What a joke. Where are the children?

Davis cold weather shelter facility seeks volunteers to help staff and serve meals

From the Davis Cold Weather Shelter

A dry, warm, safe bed and food on a daily basis are essentials of life which many of us take for granted. These basics are not part of the daily lives of people who are homeless or in need. The Davis Cold Weather Shelter and Resource Center and the Davis Community Meals program work in this area to provide individuals and families with housing, meals and positive support.

At the current time, volunteers are needed to help staff the Davis Cold Weather Shelter and Resource Center as well as assist in the preparation and serving of the Davis Community Meals. The shelter is open from December through April. Meals are served throughout the year.

This is an excellent opportunity for individuals and families to share their time and energy with other members of the Davis community. Anyone interested should call 753-9204 for additional information.

Davis Community Meals and Cold Weather Shelter/Resource Center is a non-profit, non-denominational, volunteer organization.

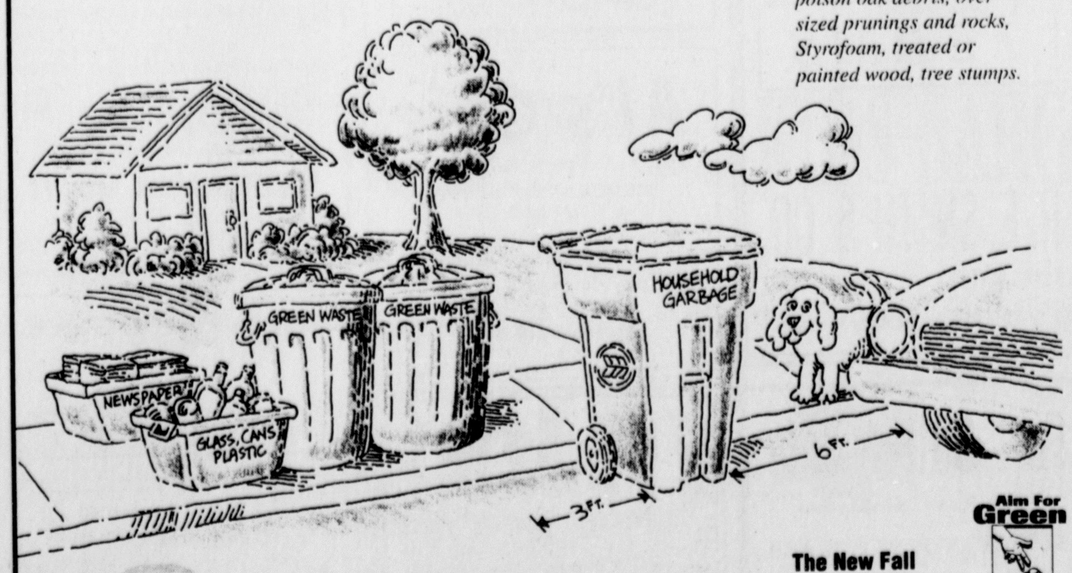
THE NEW FALL LINE-UP
Coming for the first time to the City of West Sacramento:
Green Waste
Recycling Joins the Curbside Line-Up
Starting in November, the City of West Sacramento and Waste Management of West Sacramento will introduce a whole new way to recycle, right at your curb.
You've been recycling newspapers and containers through your curbside collection program.
Now, you can also recycle "Green Waste".
Soon you will receive a new 64-gallon cart.
■ Use the new 64-gallon cart for household garbage.
■ Use your existing 30-gallon containers for Green Waste. (These are the same containers you used to use for garbage.)
■ Continue to recycle cans, glass and plastic, and newspapers in the two green recycling bins.
OK. But What's Green Waste?
Green Waste IS:
■ Grass and weed clippings
■ Shrub and tree prunings
■ Leaves
Green Waste IS NOT:
■ Garbage mixed with Green Waste
■ Ashes, cardboard, dirt, diseased plants, fibrous plants such as cactus, ice plant, ivy and palm leaves (fronds), fruit and vegetables from trees and gardens, glass, hazardous waste, household garbage, metal, other recyclables, paper, pet waste, plastic, poison oak debris, over sized prunings and rocks, Styrofoam, treated or painted wood, tree stumps.



Questions? Call us at 373-5810 or call Waste Management of West Sacramento at 374-2700. We'll get you answers.
